Meet Nanoleaf's Smart Outdoor String Lights

Elevate Your Outdoor Experiences

Illuminate your outdoor spaces with Nanoleaf's Smart Multicolor Outdoor String Lights —the ultimate outdoor essential for every backyard bash or late-night date night. Set the mood with these uniquely shaped addressable LED bulbs, featuring individual color control for dynamic flowing gradients. The Outdoor String Lights are Matter-enabled for seamless control with your smart home ecosystem.

What Makes Nanoleaf's String Lights Special?

Magical Multicolor Lighting

Watch multiple colors appear at once along your string lights for a stunning visual effect to transform your outdoor spaces.

16M+ Colors & Whites

Set the perfect lighting in your backyard with infinite color options and a full range of ambient white light (2700K-6500K).

Set the Ambience

Easily create the perfect mood for nights on the patio with included Scenes like “Sunset Sky” or “Cozy Time.” Or make your own custom multicolor Scenes in the App.

Set Schedules

Automatically have your lights turn on when it gets dark to make your daily routines easier. Set Schedules with your smart home ecosystem - Matter home hub required.

For All Weather

IP65 rated String Lights and an IP67 Controller make this perfect for outdoor patios, backyards, and gardens all year round.

See Music Come to Life

Sync up your lights with your favorite songs by turning on the Rhythm Music Visualizer. Create the right ambience for chill patio nights, get together, or relaxing.

Fully Extendable

Extend your Outdoor String Lights with Expansions, up to a max of 45m (147 ft) to cover your entire outdoor space.

Easy Control

Control with the physical Controller, your preferred Smart Home ecosystem via Matter or the Nanoleaf App for full customizations.

Outdoor Experiences

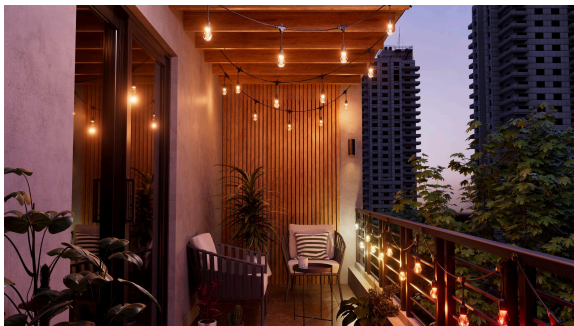

Elevate Your Outdoor Spaces

Put the finishing touches on your outdoor areas with an inviting glow and the unique gem-like design. Add the perfect amount of late-night illumination—with an exciting and colorful twist.

Make Every Day Special

Turn every patio night into a night to remember with lights that create magical moments. Make date nights and parties even better with custom lighting Scenes.

Outside Just Got Smarter

These aren't your grandma's string lights—bring the ease and convenience of smart home outside your home with automations, voice control, and more.

Added Home Security

Lighting outside your home at night creates more visibility to dissuade potential intruders. Set the lights on a Schedule for when you're away from home for added security.
